

This is a mockery. All people that complained about Howard Stern abusing the air waves should complain about this blatant disregard of lack of censorship. Talk about a double standard. This is an outrage. I am 1000 times more offended by this than anything to come out of Mr. Stern's mouth. Sinclair should be ashamed of themselves. What a horrible thing to do in an all ready divided country. I hope that God makes you pay for this sin when it is time for you to atone to him.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
